hunter singers

Hunter Singers is the regional choir for students in government high schools in the Hunter Region. The group was formed in 1989 by Kim Sutherland OAM, Head Teacher Creative and Performing Arts at Merewether High School. Hunter Singers provides students with the opportunity to perform at a very high standard and participate in local and international tours.

Hunter Singers rehearsals are held at Merewether High School Learning Centre on Tuesday afternoons during school terms at 4.30-6.30pm. The group rehearses in the Learning Centre near Pokolbin Street.

Performance Opportunities

Hunter Singers perform a subscription series of three concerts each year. In addition to this, they participate in concerts at the Sydney Opera House and tour internationally every two years. In 2012, the choir earned a Gold Diploma at the World Choir Games in Cincinnati, USA.

Costs

Hunter Singers is subsidised by the Department of Education and the fees represent good value at $90 per term. Uniforms cost approximately $120 - $140.
